The Conversation

For this month's conversation, everyone is invited to bring work, ideas, questions and concerns inspired by our personal experiences in, of, or around art. We will allow the conversation to take shape as we participate in it together, keeping in mind that it is not a critique but an opportunity to share our own experiences.

Announcements (following the conversation)

Member announcements: share information about your current and upcoming exhibits (bring postcards if you have them), exhibition opportunities, recommended classes, resources, books, etc. that may not have been mentioned during the conversation.

AOPR announcements: share information about upcoming AOPR events, "Meet Ups", reminders, etc.
